CURB THE CARELESS DRIVER

Thoughtless and criminally careless motorists who continue to endanger their own lives as well as the other occupants of cars which they are driving are to be curbed if plans made at a meeting between officials of the Railroad commission, District Attorney A. B. Tinning and engineers of the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and Sacramento Short Line railroads are carried out.

As a result of this conference it is expected that the Contra Costa Board of Supervisors will pass a law making it a misdemeanor for the driver of an automobile to cross a railroad track while a wigwag warning signal is operating, until after the train has passed.

If the Contra Costa Board of Supervisors passes such a law and the law is strictly enforced there will be an absolute end of railroad crossing accidents in the county.

People are constantly running danger signals and nine time out of ten they get away with it. Then when they are caught the tenth time they blame the other fellow. Yesterday at the railroad crossing on Barrett avenue near Sixteenth street, the wigwag was going and a crossing flagman was standing in the middle of the street with a two foot sign reading "STOP" and yet a motorist crossed the track and was forced to swerve to one side in order to miss the crossing flagman and the train missed the car by inches. A few blocks further on that same car stopped and we noticed three women in the rear seat and one in the front with a child in her arms, in addition to the man driver. They evidently thought their narrow escape a good joke because they were having a laugh about it.

The flagman was unable to do anything in this case other than take the number of the automobile and according to officials of the company within a few days the registered owner of that car will receive a polite letter from the railroad company telling him of the dangers encountered when running a danger signal.

It is apparent however, with the large number of fatal accidents almost every day, that something more than a polite letter is necessary. The man or woman driving an automobile across a railroad track when a wigwag is going is nothing more or less than a potential murderer and should be treated as such.

If the county board of supervisors should pass that law and then call a recess for the next twelve months, they would more than justify their salaries and positions.

IT IS A MUCH NEEDED LAW, LET'S HAVE IT QUICK, AND THEN ENFORCE IT.

Not only is such an ordinance required in the outlying districts of the county but the city of Richmond needs it as well. It is true we haven't had a serious accident of this nature within the city limits for some time, but WHY WAIT UNTIL THE HORSE IS STOLEN BEFORE WE LOCK THE BARN.

Property Was Taken Over From Germans and Austrians During War

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Legislation to compel the return of all enemy owned property seized by the United States Government during the war is to be recommended to Congress by President Coolidge in his message to Congress which he is preparing today. It was authoritatively learned here today.

This property taken from German and Austrian owners during the war under the provision of the Alien Property law now is estimated to be valued at $300,000,000.

An act of Congress will be required to return the property to its rightful owner.

ALBERTS' INC WILL OBSERVE 9TH BIRTHDAY

Today marks the ninth year since Albert's Inc., was formed in Richmond. Nine years ago the department store was established on Seventh street and Macdonald avenue and for eight years the business steadily grew until one year ago the company was forced to move into larger quarters.

Consequently the large building at Ninth street and Macdonald avenue was erected and one year ago today it was formally opened for business. Today Albert's Inc., stands as one of the leading department stores in Contra Costa county.

With every department co-operating the Ninth Anniversary sale of Alberts will open this morning and from the interest already manifested by the public it promises to be one of the most successful sale events in the history of the mercantile establishment.

Because the firm has made and kept a reputation for honest advertising and dealings, Alberts' sales have been uniformly successful.

Pittsburg Redmen Visit Local Lodge

About thirty members of Yasedino Council, Degree of Pocahontas of Pittsburg, were in attendance at the meeting and entertainment given by Onetah Council of Richmond in Redmen's hall last night. Following the business meeting dancing and games were enjoyed. The committee on arrangements was under the direction of Cloe Barry and Julia Maskall.

During the business meeting, Committee Chairman Ann Sullivan, announced that everything is in readiness for the turkey order which party to be staged by the council in Redmen's hall on the evening of November 19. It is planned to present the winner of high scores at every third table with $3.50 turkey order.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Ripley, 651 Eleventh street, are entertaining as their house guest, Mrs. Arthur A. Greene, who arrived this week from Hawaii. Mrs. Greene is a niece of the Ripleys.

City Could Make Profit At the Wharf

(INSTALLMENT NO. 20)

If the harbor committee, and the mayor of the city make a thorough investigation, concerning the handling of goods at the municipal wharf, and report their findings to the council, there seems to be but little question, according to the rumors that are about, but that a different arrangement at the municipal wharf from that which is now in effect, will be made.

If responsible companies are willing to pay the City of Richmond a reasonable amount for the use of the city wharf and wharf shed, why not accept it?

The City of Richmond is not receiving any revenue from the Richmond Terminal Corporation, for the valued privilege it enjoyed for five years under agreement, and which it is continuing to enjoy without any agreement.

The sooner some new agreement is made, the richer the treasury of the City of Richmond will be. Any property that produces is better than a property that results in a deficit.

The many advantages that are possessed by the municipal wharf are attractive to shippers, and the shipping of goods will continue to increase steadily.

The citizens of Richmond are asking the council to do away with the monopoly that now exists at the wharf, especially in view of the fact that this monopoly exists, with no return to the City of Richmond.

Plot to Kill The Italian Premier Is Unsuccessful

ROME, Nov. 5.—Premier Mussolini today had a narrow escape from assassination. Following the discovery yesterday to assassinate the Premier on the day in which Italy was joining in the celebration of the allied victory in the great war a number of arrests have been made. Those that have been arrested so far are: Tito Zaniboni, former socialist deputy; General Luigi Capello, a 33rd degree mason and Giuseppe Quaglia, former secretary to Zaniboni, and now editor of a newspaper, said to be organ of the Catholic Democratic party.

Efforts to place the responsibility of the attempted assassination on the Masons failed when it was shown that the plot was the outgrowth of a meeting attended by socialists, Catholic democrats, garibaldians and Masons all in a block. The meeting is said to have been held in the Bell Zillose in Paris by those opposing Mussolini.

(By Universal Service)

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 5.—Governor Richardson today issued the annual Thanksgiving Proclamation which was said to be the shortest document of its kind in history. The proclamation follows:

ASTOR WIDOW, WHO RENOUNCED $5,000,000 TO WED SAID TO BE CONSIDERING DIVORCE FROM W. K. DICK

Above are pictured Mr. and Mrs. William K. Dick, who are rumored to be on the verge of a divorce. Mrs. Dick who renounced the $5,000,000 estate left her by her first husband Col. J. J. Court Closes Union Hotel

"Sad, but true," moaned chief mourner Louis Fossetto owner and operator of the Union hotel at Pittsburg yesterday, as he watched a funeral service that included everything except a sermon for his establishment, which has died an official death for one year.

A bad case of chronic bootleg discovered by members of both the federal and county dry squad is said to have developed into an acute case of abatement, according to Judge H. V. Alvarado, who made the final diagnosis of the case a short time ago and announced that the place would die an official death for one year.

When county officers arrived on the scene yesterday to carry out the death sentence, the found they door of the hotel banked with flowers, a wreath bearing the words "rest in peace" at the very top and two handsome garlanders at each side, both filled with beautiful flowers.

HEAVY DAMAGES ASKED IN SUIT

Charging that he suffered a broken ankle, concussion of the brain and contusions of the body when he was struck down by an automobile, driven by Joe Rosie, Bert Scoble, Standard Oil employee, filed suit in Martinez today asking for $5,000 damages. In addition to the above amount, Scoble asks for $711, an amount he says he lost through his inability to work for several months and money he expended for medical treatment.

Scoble charges in his complaint that Rosie knocked him to the ground with his car while attempting to pass a standing street car, within the "safety" limit of six feet on November 8, 1924. Hiram E. Jacobs is attorney for Scoble.

Boy Injured When Automobiles Crash On Pullman Avenue

Superficial bruises and cuts about the face and head, a broken right collar bone, and a severe cut on the left arm, were sustained by Everett Reed, 9, as a result of an automobile crash between automobiles driven by his father, Alfred J. Reed, 202 Mosier Lane, El Cerrito and Bud Gray, 1706 Dwight Way, Berkeley, in front of the Pullman shops yesterday afternoon.

One machine was traveling north and the other south on Pullman avenue, when Reed's car skidded on the Southern Pacific spur track running into the Pullman shops, and crashed into Gray's automobile, according to the police reports. The two cars were badly damaged, but both Gray and Reed escaped without injury.

The child was taken to a local hospital where his injuries were treated. Reports coming from the hospital state that the cuts and bruises are not serious and that the boy will be able to return to his home today.

MOOSE TO TAKE PART IN PARADE ARMISTICE DAY

Richmond lodge of Moose will send its drill team and drum corps to participate in the Armistice day parade on next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, it was decided at the meeting of the organization last night in Moose hall. Representatives of the Richmond Post of the American Legion were at the meeting and completed arrangements for the participation of the lodge in the march.

On November 19, the degree team of Martinez lodge will be in Richmond to confer the initiatory degree on one of the largest classes of candidates ever to be taken into the lodge. The degree staff of the neighboring city will also confer the third degree at that time. Next Wednesday J. S. McGinnis will deliver an address on "Mooseheart." All members are urged by Dictator William Vossbeck to be on hand at these two meetings as an interesting time is promised.

To further the idea of extemporaneous speaking in the lodge a new stunt has been devised. Six members are selected at a meeting and they stick a pin between any pages of the dictionary. The first word on the left-hand page must be the subject of a two minute talk. Last night a number of speeches were given with titles such as ocean, tongue and criticism.

Three Local Essays Entered in Contest

Three essays on the subject "Who Should Go to College" have been chosen from a number written by students of Richmond Union high school and sent to the Deputation Bureau of the University of California. The essays chosen were written by Alice Dicely, Ruth Rector, and Lewis Albert.

Schools all over the state are participating in this contest. The winner earns a week's visit to the campus of the college and a ticket for the "big game."

DRIVER TO RECEIVE REWARD

Mail, Truck Contained Payroll Of Stirling Diamond Match Co.

(By Universal Service)

CHICO, Nov. 5.—Fred C. Crummett, almond rancher and deacon in a Chico church for more than ten years, was overpowered and arrested today during a desperate attempt to rob a United States mail truck, containing a $2,500 payroll.

He was disguised with a false beard, a black moustache, and had a mask in his pocket. Although he carried a large automatic revolver and a black-jack, he was overpowered without difficulty.

Crummett was captured by Rollin T. Webb, postal messenger and driver of the truck. Webb's effective resistance will net him a reward of $2,000, according to Postmaster George P. Morse.

The truck containing mail and the payroll for the Stirling City Diamond Match Company, left the postoffice about 9 a. m. As it left the building Crummett jumped to the running board, confronted Webb, and ordered him to throw up his hands.

Webb's reply was to kick open the door of the driver's cab. This threw Crummett to the street, and Webb immediately grappled with him and overpowered him, although Crummett carried an automatic revolver and a home-made "black-jack."

Contracts Are Let For Improvements To Wesley Church

The contract for painting and renovating the interior and exterior of Wesley Methodist church, was let this week by the trustees of the church. Zeb Knott will do the painting and tinting. W. A. LISTEN TO EXPERTS

Secretary Mellon of the treasury, who in the pursuit of his own affairs has accumulated one of the largest fortunes in America, can be trusted, and is trusted, by the people of the United States at large, with knowing something about taxation systems, methods and operations. For that reason the tax program which he has just announced and which he explained before the house ways and means committee already has the confidence of the people.

It is refreshing to see a committee of congress listening with attention to a man whose studies have made him an authority on taxation. College professors are not always the most practical men in the world, but Prof. T. S. Adams, of Yale, who testified before Chairman Greene's committee day before yesterday, had experience other than that of the class room. If democrats, who last session thwarted the will of the American people for the Mellon tax plan, can sit in the presence of wisdom, they may make up for their weird errors of the past and join with the republicans in a tax revision bill that will really do some good.

It was inevitable that the democrats, whose financial activities, personal and national, so often lead to deficits, should propose alternatives evolved out of their inner consciences, but in view of the fact that the democrats have never yet given us a national surplus there is no need of getting excited. What has happened is plain to all. The democrats, desperate over the success with which the president and his advisers have carried on a tax reduction program, are now madly at work trying to catch on to the wagon tail. Their antics would be amusing were it not for the fact that a democrat on the floor of congress can create confusion and delay the game. The program which Secretary Mellon has worked out, with the advice and approval of the president, provides for the enactment of the tax reduction measure before March next, or in time to allow the people to profit in their March income tax payments. The one danger is, of course, that this democratic attempt to play in the republican sun may operate to deprive the people of this reduction in March, and if that happens it is well that the people should understand what faction is responsible for it.

MacNIDER'S JOB

Hanford MacNider, former national commander of the American Legion, who was selected by President Coolidge to be assistant secretary of war to succeed Dwight F. Davis, now secretary, was born in Mason City, Iowa, and is 37 years old. He is a graduate of Harvard, and first saw active military service on the Mexican border in 1916. He volunteered and entered the United States army shortly after the United States entered the World war, serving with distinction abroad, receiving the distinguished service cross. He resigned from the army in 1919 with the rank of lieutenant colonel. Because of his activities in behalf of the former soldiers of the war, he was selected to head the American Legion.

MacNider has for many years been an earnest student of military matters and is eminently fitted for the position to which the president has appointed him. He also brings a business knowledge of the office that is essential. MacNider, in private life, has made a success as a business man and a banker.

During the last republican convention at Cleveland MacNider was several times mentioned as a vice-presidential possibility.

GOLD SLIPPERS

IT seems really as if the peak of extravagance has been reached when women wear slippers made of real gold—at least, the peak of extravagance in footwear.

Funny thing, it is, that while women wear imitation pearls and other jewelry they often wear their most precious ornaments on their feet or ankles. Gold-covered heels are not a novelty and some of these gold heels are studded with precious stones.

But the newest extravagance of all is this gold slipper. It is entirely covered with gold leaf. Silver leaf is sometimes used, but this is not so effective. The feeling seems to be that no sort of foot covering gives quite so distinguished an appearance as these slippers covered with real gold. In France they cost a paltry five hundred francs.

MORE ORANGE JUICE

It would almost seem as if all the writers on food values were interested in the orange groves of the land, for all of them urge the using of more and more orange juice.

The fact is that doctors and dietitians and mothers all realize the tremendous health value of orange juice, and can therefore never say quite enough in its favor.

Orange juice is palatable to almost everybody. Some babies do not like it the first few times they have ever had of anything save milk, of course, and probably seem sour. But they soon become accustomed to it, and before long like it. And almost any child or adult who drinks it often acquires a real liking for it. Most children would rather have a drink of orange juice than any sort of beverage, if it is served attractively.

SYNOPSIS

Connemara Moore was to announce her engagement tonight—either to Bingham Carrington or Saltonstall Cabot Adams—or be disinherited by her aunt. But instead of being in auntie's Connecticut home Connemara is now at the edge of the sound about to board a ferry for Long Island with David Lacy, whom she saw for the first time only an hour or so ago. It's a foggy, stormy night—a great night for bootleggers—as the ferryman has just observed. Back home, auntie, Bing and Salt are all worrying.

Bing would have died rather than let his eyes follow Miss Celimena's to the slow-moving hands of the old clock, but all the same he knew at the precise instant she did when they pointed, after centuries had passed, to five minutes of twelve.

Whether the entire, queerly garbed assemblage had been watching the clock also, there are, of course, no means of knowing, but the fact remains that there was a sudden, concerted halt of the dancers, and—after a straggling diminuendo wail from the blaring saxophone, and an uncertain thump or two from the drums—the orchestra followed their example and fell into abrupt and motionless silence.

A hundred pairs of eyes were turned expectantly from one entrance of the ballroom to the other, in search of a slim, straight little figure in the white robes of a Dominican Sister, minus the veil and head covering, coming to end the evening's play with the all-important announcement.

Poppy Glenn in particular, seemed unusually nervous, twisting her pretty neck to crane inquisitively over first one plump bare shoulder and then the other in her efforts to keep both doors in sight at the same time.

"If Connemara bobbed her hair it meant she was engaged to me?"

A full minute ticked itself away laboriously, and the strain grew. There were stifled giggles here and there in the room, and an impatient tapping of high heels that had the restless, staccato tempo of castanets. Then, suddenly, as if in response to his cue, in the right-hand doorway appeared the stately figure of Judson, Miss Celimena's white-headed butler, carrying a small tissue-paper package in his hands.

And with the eyes of the room upon him, straight up to Saltonstall Cabot Adams went Judson, as unhurried and matter-of-course as though about to announce that dinner was served, and laid the package in Salt's astonished hand.

"Miss Connemara told me it early this evening I was to deliver it at midnight, sir," quoth Judson, and his part played, departed discreetly.

Bing with his face as white as Saltonstall's was scarlet, held his chin high by sheer instinct of pride, for, like the other man, he was past conscious analysis of his actions.

Poppy, who happened to be beside Salt, leaned forward with impertinent assurance and read aloud the clear black handwriting of the package's superscription:

"Saltonstall Cabot Adams, Esq."

According to Agreement.

Constance Mary Moore,

June 30th, 12 p. m.

"My gracious, but she's being legal and exact. Congratulations, Salt, old top! Now hurry and open it up!"

It is probable, so great was Miss Glenn's curiosity and eagerness, that if her suggestion had not been promptly acted upon by the successful suitor, she would have snatched

ANOTHER GRID STAR APPEARS ON HORIZON

Red Grange will have to look to his gridiron laurels this Fall, for there is another football star about to shoot across the horizon. You never would guess it, perhaps, but it is Harold Lloyd, glasses and all, for in his newest contribution to the screen, "The Freshman," which comes to the California theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the king of mirth jumps from scapegoat to hero in probably the most unusual football contest ever seen on the screen.

There is one strange fact about the gridiron episode—one which clearly establishes the fact that Lloyd's horned rims have become as much a part of him as his name. During Lloyd's presence in the game not once does he remove his glasses.

Football coaches should be able to get some "tips" from "The Freshman" Lloyd executes some new shifts that might prove of value to such college teams as Notre Dame, Princeton, Yale or Harvard. But there is one thing certain—"The Freshman" gives to the public the funniest ninety-five yard run, if not the most spectacular, any football fan ever witnessed.

Football, however, is only a contributing factor to the hilarity in "The Freshman" which relates the story of a college youth who learns after many bitter experiences that "being yourself" is the best way to popularity.

SOCIETY WILL PRESENT PLAY

"Behind the Scenes" is the name of the one act play that will be given this evening by the Girls' Friendly society of the St. Edmund's church under the direction of Mrs. Alice Scariett. There will also be a candy and wicker sale by the girls. Everyone is cordially invited.

Youthful Star in Scene From Picture Showing at California

JACKIE COOGAN in THE RAG MAN

Buck Jones Starred In Picture Showing At Local Theatre

Buck Jones, whose latest picture, "The Timber Wolf," will be seen at the Richmond theatre today and tomorrow, started his screen career as what is commonly known as a "stunt man." He has remained one ever since, even though he has soared to the heights of stardom.

Before entering motion pictures he was a daredevil rider in "101 Ranch" a wild west show. In many of his photoplays he has not only duplicated many of his daring feats on horseback, but has performed stunts with his beautiful horse "Silver Buck" which would put the circus thrills to shame.

When he first worked before the camera he doubled for many prominent stars, doing stunts which required considerable risk. After working his way to the top rung of the ladder of stardom, he continued performing these acts of daring, which has resulted in his obtaining one of the largest fan followings of any star on the screen.

Some of the most perilous thrills ever filmed are promised in his new vehicle "The Timber Wolf," in which Buck is given an opportunity to display his ability as a champion horseman.

Other features on the same program include "Be Careful," a Jimmie Adams comedy of riotous fun; "Felix Futs It Over," a Felix, the cat, comedy.

NEWARK, N. The battle will be started on the eve of Thanksgiving day, November 25. It will be a twelve round affair. Walker is slightly favored.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 5. The fight between Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills will go through next year under the management of Floyd Fitzsimmons as far as the champion is concerned, he declared here last night. Dempsey said that the rumors that the Fitzsimmons contract had been scrapped were false and that he had not made up with Kearns.

SAN JOSE, Nov. 5.—The distances that wild ducks will fly has been shown to be at least across the country. Frank Cardozo shot a mallard here yesterday that bore the tag "Washington, D. C. No. 297469. Notify Biological Survey." The duck was an exceptionally large bird and appeared to be several years old. This is a record as far as is known.

PASSING NOT USED
ATHENS, Ga., Nov. 5.—With every week-end, expecting one, cloudy, rainy, muddy and otherwise adverse to football playing, the teams of the southern states have reverted to putting and running back punts with a great deal of success. The same rainy weather makes it hard to pass the ball successfully so the forward pass tactics are out.

Difference Between Negroes and White Race Is Discussed

"The Conflict between the negro and the white race" was the subject of an address given by Dr. G. C. Coleman last evening in the Richmond clubhouse at the Church Fellowship dinner. Dr. Coleman is the moderator of the colored Baptist churches of Northern California and vice-president of negro work in the United States. Because of his first hand information his lecture proved of interest. In the talk he told that at the time the slaves were freed there were only 45,000 known christians and today there are close to 5,000,000. In this state alone there are 460 negro Sunday Schools, and there are 2,050 negro missionaries. Over 2,500,000 own their own homes, and there are 215,612 farmers who own their own farms. The negroes have 175 distinct colored schools that represent an investment of $3,000,000. In 1867 there were barely 4,000 negro enterprises conducted by negroes and today there are 50,000 colored people in business. Hospitals run entirely by negroes number 143,000 and there are 55,000 negro physicians. There are 74 banks under their control, and 68 towns governed by them. Dr. Coleman said that the negro race as a whole had no desire to mingle with the white race but that they had been antagonized.

Dr. W. W. Giberson was chairman of the evening and called on Rev. S. T. Himes who offered the prayer. America was sung by the entire audience lead by the colored jubilee singers that were present from the colored North Oakland Baptist church. This choir gave an excellent entertainment for the evening by singing a fine selection of negro spiritual songs. It was planned to have this choir return to Richmond sometime in the near future and give an entertainment, the proceeds to go to eliminate the debt of the colored North Richmond church here.

Rev. W. F. Watkins, a missionary from the Techachapi mountains to the Oregon line gave a short address and Dr. Giberson gave a talk on Father and sons night that will be observed in all the churches on next Thursday evening, with the exception of the Episcopal who will observe it on Tuesday.

Rev. Grant made a report for the committee in charge of the Lyceum movement and Harry Marcus who is enthusiastically supporting it was added to the committee. A decision will be reached in a few days.

G. P. Gineberg spoke on the tag day that will be held one week from tomorrow to help pay the expense of the seed bought by the boy scouts to plant poppies along Cutting boulevard.

It was planned to hold the next meeting on the 3rd of December in the Community Methodist church with Rev. C. G. Lindemann in charge of the program.

There were approximately 120 guests at the dinner last night and they extended a rousing vote of thanks to Circle No. 2 of the Ladies aid of the Baptist church for preparing the excellent dinner.

JUNIOR HIGH ANNUAL BENEFIT SHOW TONIGHT

A wide variety of entertainment is scheduled for tonight when the students of Roosevelt Junior High school stage their semi-annual show. The directors promise that the audience will not experience a dull moment during the presentation of the program.

Under the personal direction of Miss J. Gilbert, the show promises to be bigger and better than any held in the past. Tickets may be secured from any student of the school today or at the box office of the auditorium which will open at 7:30 p. m., giving everyone time to get tickets and be in their seats by the time the curtain goes up at 8:15. The admission prices are 25 cents for students and 35 cents for adults.

Defendant In Oil Trial Says Errors Were "Oversights"

While being cross-examined by Assistant District Attorney Wade Snook in connection with the Golett Oil swindle, Edwin E. Reeves, one of the grand larceny defendants in the megar scheme, declared yesterday that the discrepancies found in his own memoranda of stock sales were "oversights."

Reeves resumed the stand yesterday morning and it is expected that the grilling will last the rest of the week. Reeves and the other four defendants are being represented by Pierce and Carlson of Richmond.

Under direct testimony Reeves said he collected $342,998 on sales of stock, of this amount paid $263,215 to James Gough, leader of the ring, and retained the balance for himself. He declared that when arrested he had $13,827 on hand.

LAW PRECEDENT IS ESTABLISHED

MARTINEZ, No. 5.—In handing down a judgment today in favor of the defendants, Superior Judge H. V. Alvarado made a decision that established a law precedent in that the original owner of property after transferring it to others can no longer enforce such building restrictions as were originally specified.

Judge Alvarado decided that the plea of Thomas R. Hanna to regain possession of a lot in Valona, now the foundation of one of the piers of the Carquinez Straits bridge be returned to his ownership, was not to be granted. The defendant in the suit was the Rodeo-Vallejo Ferry company. The lot was sold by Hanna to H. A. Miller, under a deed that provided for reversion to Hanna if the property was used for any other than residential purposes before 1935. The ferry company purchased the lot from Miller and erected the bridge pier.

Coffin Containing King Tut Is Found

(By Universal Service)

CAIRO, Nov. 5.—The actual coffin containing the mummy of King Tutankhamen was uncovered today by Howard Carter, the American Egyptologist. With the development today new wonders were revealed.

When Carter removed the linen covering of the second sarcophagus, there was revealed still another sarcophagus decorated with painted designs on red glass with a layer of gold on a marble ground giving representations of the God Osiris.

Further investigations uncovered a human shape, gilt covered, wearing a necklace with flowers tied about the head and with a likeness of the young pharaoh painted on the head portion of the coffin.

The figure was covered with a tight fitting linen shroud, which was removed.

The actual coffin of King Tutankhamen was covered with gold ornamentation of marvelous workmanship, but was partly concealed by a black, glutinous layer, apparently from the funeral libations.

Carter intends to take the mummy out of the coffin, after which it will be wrapped up again to await the decision of the Egyptian government as to its disposal.

Girl Reserves To Have Paper Drive

The Girl reserves of Richmond Union high school are making preparations to conduct a paper drive to raise funds for the Thanksgiving baskets which are distributed by the reserves each year. Any old magazines, papers, etc., may be turned in to Miss Clara McLauren and they will be forwarded to public institutions by the committee.

At the week's meeting of the organization a clever skit was put on by Charlotte Freeman, Edna Mayfield, Fleta Johnson and Dorothy Weisgerber which provided good entertainment. A discussion of "Movies, why they are liked and their benefits," was held by Irene Meldrum Idrys Linobough.

The meeting was closed with songs led by Mildred Wollet and Mary Mann.
